TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 13, 1858

A METHODIST MINISTER SWINDLED. The party of swindlers who were in town during the first part of the week, a part of whom left for St. Louis on Wednesday. succeeded in playing the "patent safe game" upon a Methodist Minister from Virginia, who was on his way to Council Bloffs .-The modus operandi was as follows: One of the party introduced himself to the minister on board a steamer at the levee, and represented himself as a fellow-passenger to St. Louis. The gentleman was exceedingly polite and affable, and after discussing various subjects, proposed a walk before the boat started. The minister who is quite an elderly man, accepted the arm of his companion, and the two strolled toward the Ohio and Mississippi railroad depot .--On their way they fell in with another 1 prize of man who exhibited a patent safe, and af- I prize of ter going through with the usual ceremony of opening it, and exhibiting a paper inside, which was removed by the confederate of the safe man, the latter proposed to bet that there was a slip of paper inside, which they could not get. The minister refused to wager anything, declaring it was against his principles, but assured the man with the safe that there was no paper in it -The stranger still insisted on backing his assertion, when the confederate, who was in company with the old man, banded the latter a check for $750 on a New York bank, and proposed that he should lend him what money he had, and take that as security, and he would make the bet.

The minister complied, and counted out $383 in gold and Virginia notes, which were no sooner handed over, than the rascal with the safe seized the money, and started on the run down the street. The old man began to cry out, but the other fellow told him to keep quiet; and pulling out a pistol, started after the chap with the cash, saying, "I'll make him give back that money, or kill bim!" The two turned the next corner, and were soon out of sight. The minister made his loss known to a policeman, but too late to recover the money or catch the swindlers. After he got on board the boat, he expressed less regret at the loss of the money, than fears that his name would get into the papers, and his friends in Virginia thereby become apprised of the fact that he had made a fool of himself .- Cincinnati Gazette.

FORTY-THREE HOURS IN THE SNOW. On Sunday, the 7th inst., a young woman named Sarah West, a servant of Mr. Nicholas Freeman, farmer, of Newbold, in the East Riding of Yorkshire, went on a visit to her parents who reside at the neighboring town of Market Weighton. The same afternoon she set out for the purpose of returning to Newbold, but had not proceeded far on her journey, before a heavy snow storm commenced, which in many places drifted to Whole Tickets $10; Halves $5; Quarters $2.50. a considerable depth, the wind at the time A Package of 16 Whole Tickets, costs. . . . $160 blowing hard.

The country the young woman had to traverse has a wild, desolate appearance during the winter months, and is very hilly, being in close proximity to the Yorkshire Wolds; and night having overtaken her she lost her way. She struggled with the storm for some time, but was eventually overcome, the wind and the blinding snow completely mastering ber, and her further progress, she says, was a matter of impossibility. Her body soon became firmly imbedded in the snow, and she had to use every precaution to keep her head above the surface. Strange to relate, she was found alive in this unpleasant position on Tuesday last, more Maryland. CAPITAL OVER $250,000, AND CONSTANTLY INCHEASING. The charter of this Company offers more fg. vorable advantages to the farmer and others than any other company chartered in the State by insuring with or without a premium note ... If the applicant prefer, he can pay the toll amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash small premium note, the insured saves nearly one half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of THE CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE

This company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 15th of March, 1854, since which time over five thou sand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over thirty thousand dollars have been paid for losses-Having trebled our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe that by prodence caution and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety, not surpassed by any Company in the U.
